

COMMUNITY COACH WORKSHOP

JOIN THE FUTURE OF TENNIS AS A COACH!

Using the Net Generation community programming curricula, providers can engage more kids by using the customizable practice-and-play plans, activity videos, and access to free modified equipment. Curricula has been developed for red, orange, and green stages of a tennis program using modified equipment targeting beginner players aged 5-18. Additional support is provided with marketing materials and promotions to enhance your coaching experience.

To facilitate the best delivery of the curricula, a two-hour coach's workshop has been developed for both the red and orange/green levels. The workshops showcase relevant activities for each level as well as how to coach, manage, and organize practices. Plus, workshop attendees receive participant manuals as a take home resource.

These workshops are perfect for volunteers and coaches prior to their Net Generation Community practice sessions.
